

RESPECTING ANIMALS MEANS GOING VEGAN

Everyone knows that it is wrong to harm animals like cats and dogs without good reason. But, if this is true, then we should all be vegan.

Why is that?

There is no morally significant difference between dogs and cats and other animals.

Using and consuming animals and their products causes harm to animals.

Our only reasons for using and consuming animals and their products are enjoyment, convenience, and habit.

This poster is based on the work of Prof. Gary L. Francione.

Learn more:
abolitionistapproach.com
howdigo vegan.com

POSTER CREATED BY

IVA INTERNATIONAL VEGAN
ASSOCIATION

internationalvegan.org

If enjoyment, convenience, and habit are not good enough reasons to harm animals, then we must seek to eliminate our use and consumption of animals for food, clothing, and entertainment.

We must become vegan.

For more information about veganism and a free 28-page Vegan Starter Kit that includes nutrition info and recipes, visit internationalvegan.org.

Free Vegan Starter Kit
internationalvegan.org/vsk

Free Vegan Starter Kit
internationalvegan.org/vsk

Free Vegan Starter Kit
internationalvegan.org/vsk

Free Vegan Starter Kit
internationalvegan.org/vsk

Free Vegan Starter Kit
internationalvegan.org/vsk

Free Vegan Starter Kit
internationalvegan.org/vsk

Free Vegan Starter Kit
internationalvegan.org/vsk

Free Vegan Starter Kit
internationalvegan.org/vsk

Free Vegan Starter Kit
internationalvegan.org/vsk

Free Vegan Starter Kit
internationalvegan.org/vsk

Free Vegan Starter Kit
internationalvegan.org/vsk

Free Vegan Starter Kit
internationalvegan.org/vsk

Free Vegan Starter Kit
internationalvegan.org/vsk

Free Vegan Starter Kit
internationalvegan.org/vsk